

Whisky evening at Rubylo hosted by Reserve Brands

6.00pm Wednesday 4th August 2010

Immerse yourself in a tasting experience with a range of single Malts accompanied by delicious canapés and whisky based cocktails. Learn and be entertained by an expert whisky ambassador who will take you through the history, flavour map, production methods and secrets behind some of Scotland's finest Malts.

Whether you know the difference between an Islay and a Speyside or you simply know what you like, this event will cater for all taste buds.

Ticket information:

Early bird (first 20 tickets) just £10

Regular ticket/door price £20

The tasting session will last approximately 90 minutes with a short interval. Complimentary canapés and cocktails will be served on arrival and at the end of the session with a discount on Malt Whisky to guests all evening.

The bar will close at midnight.
